CARL HAYDEN 1980

Pixie,

I'm really glad I got to know you last year. You were one of the people who got me talking. I really got to like you last year, but all for naught. We haven't talked too much this year but I still consider you a pretty good friend of mine. Hopefully we'll keep in touch after the high school years. Stay crazy and very pretty. Good luck in future years.

Love,

Jose Serna

Pixie,

What can I say. Your one of the nicest girls that I could have met. Your personality is beautiful. You have brains, looks and a great sense of humor. I don't have to wish you any luck in the future because I know that you'll succeed. It was fun having you in 3rd hour. We had alot of fun. I think fifth hour was one of my best hours. I know you probably wrote how funny I was, and that I made you laugh more than you made me laugh and I certainly

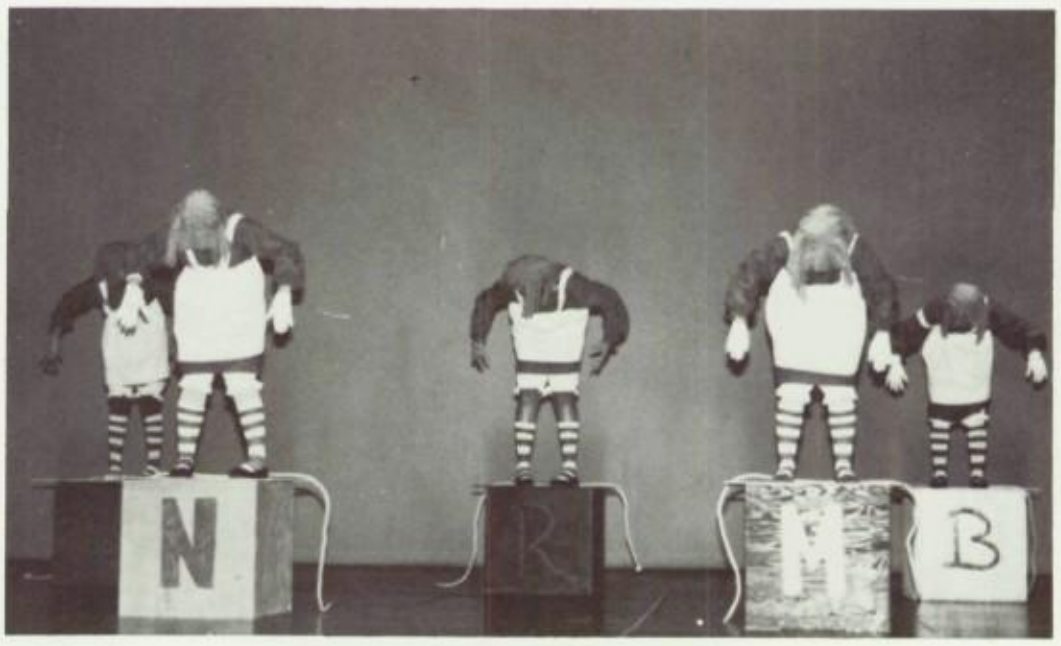
FREDDIE THE FALCON

This year Audrey Rolf was the lucky one to be chosen to show her spirit as Freddie the Falcon.

50's DAY

'CHASE ME'

The CHHS dance classes presented their dance program Jan. 14. The program was made up of 15 dances with approximately 60 girls participating. The girls made up most of the dances, varying from modern dances to jazz and disco.



"THE DEATH AND LIFE OF SNEAKY FITCH"

What happens to a western town when its only bum dies and then comes back to life? Carl Hayden found out when its Masque & Gavel Club presented The Death and Life of Sneaky Fitch on Nov 15 and 16, 1979. The comedy was played with the stereotypes of the Old West: a saloon girl and a gunslinger, the sheriff and the preacher, the singer of songs, and, of course, the undertaker.

To My Dear Sweet Pixie,
In all the time I've known you, your sweeter now than ever. I love all the memories of you and the things you've done. Have fun, and don't be so lazy!
Love Always,
D. Wayne Rafferty

"PIPPIN"

Pippin, a rock-musical, was the spring play. Joe Perez starred as Pippin; Patty Forrey was the leading player; and Lorrie Chambers played Catherine. A roadshow of Pippin went to Phoenix Union, West, and North High Schools on a good will tour. In addition the cast gave two night performance and an all-school assembly.

Congratulations
Carl Hayden Badminton Team!

Doubles team of Pixie Zaragoza and Charlene Vasquez won the doubles title with a victory in the finals over East High. Second doubles team, Genia King and Esther Pedroza, won third place by defeating Camelback. Charlene Vasquez was also honored as Phoenix Division Badminton Player of the Year by the Phoenix Coaches Association for girls sports.

Congratulations! on a job well done this year - I expecting great things from you this year. Just remember you need self-discipline to play singles. Always Nancy T[illegible]

The Falcon team qualified all six players for the state tournament. In the first round they all won their matches and four players went on to win six more matches in the losers bracket being eliminated. The team members are: L-R Esther Pedroza, Genia King, Nellie Rojas, Pixie Zaragosa, Charlene Vasquez, and Pat Johnson.

Both Varsity and Junior Varsity had undefeated seasons this year. Only two individuals won a match from a Carl Hayden Varsity Player. After completing their second undefeated season, the varsity team went into Divisional play. The Carl Hayden team scored 32 points in the tournament to take home their second Pheonix Division Team Title. The singles competition was a coach's dream with Nellie Rojas and Pat Johnson playing each other in the finals. Pat Johnson was the victor winning the division singles title. Nellie Rojas was second place.

On the strength of our doubles championship, and the advancement points earned by the rest of the team, Carl Hayden Badminton won the State Team Championship. Nellie Rojas scored an upset victory over a Chandler girl to win the singles title.

From me To you Albert

I can understand you don't want to be tied down, so for this reason I must smile and hide my frown. You see it's so hard to live without the times we have shared, the things we did and said, the way in which you cared. I ask, you is my only dream just an illusion? You have me running around in such a confusion. The only dream I have is me and you in the end. I wait for the day you come knock on my door. There's nothing much more I can do but tell the truth.

I Still Love You...

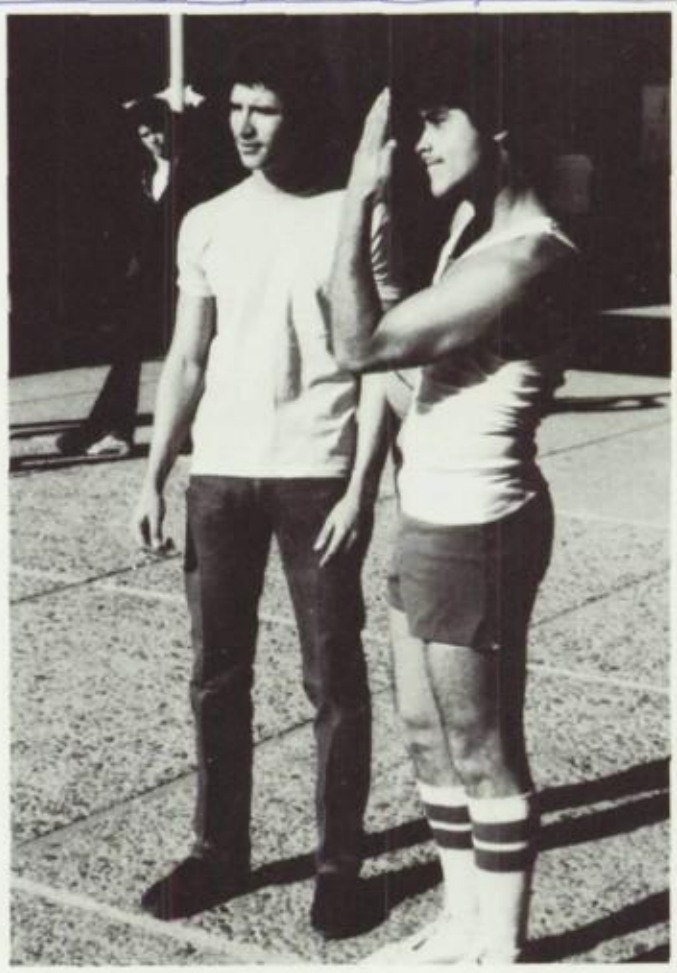
Pix,

Well Partner, where can I start? To say the most it was a Ha Ha very boring year with you. (Just kidding). For reals, this has been my most hilarious year at Hayden. Just looking at you makes me bust out laughing. (chuckle, chuckle) I got all the lines, don't I? Don't get mad or bad with me when you read this stuff I'm writing, or else you'll get a whiff of the backhand.*

*(Refer to picture below, notice it is loaded.) ↓↓↓



Seriously, Pix, I'm very happy that you were always there, when I needed you. You made school a lot easier to come too. Without you, I would've been lost. (Don't you feel like a Savior?) I hope that we'll always be the best of friends, 'cuz you're special to me. I wish the best of everything to you. Take Care

Love, Andy Coronado (Buddies)
